

Strategic Leadership Alignment - Workshop

High performance Management Team creating a unified company and driving sales excellence

Objectives & Benefits

Empowerment of your teams in engineering, sales or elsewhere needs to be combined with direction and engagement:

- Creating a strong and shared corporate / group / team Vision: how does “great” look like
- Understanding the Purpose of the Leadership Team: contribution and focus in making the vision become true
- Defining Strategy and “Must-Win-Battles”: plan and focus on What needs to get done
- Agreeing on Values and Leadership Principles: How we get it done
- Setting up an Action Plan: next steps and control points

This common understanding of the Leadership Team establishes the basis for further mobilization campaigns, especially in global sales and marketing to drive revenue

Pre-Workshop Activities

- Clearly communicated commitment and endorsement of the planned Leadership Workshop by the responsible executive member
- Interviews of selected leaders of the company to support the necessary buy-in and to calibrate the content of the Leadership Workshop
- Survey among significant representatives of the company’s functions, businesses, hierarchy levels and regions (in English and local language)
- Final alignment of the Leadership Workshop concept with the One-Company core team
